Press Release

BUCK & HICKMAN LAUNCH NEW CORPORATE CLOTHING CATALOGUE

To reflect the growing demand from customers of all sizes, Buck & Hickman has launched a dedicated Corporate Clothing catalogue designed to provide a comprehensive range of garments and styles, covering all the key applications they are likely to need.

The new catalogue offers over 114 different garment types in a huge range of colours and sizes ranging from stylish yet practical shirts, jackets and trousers for use in offices and warehouses, through to more specialist requirements like hi-visibility, waterproof and even flame retardant clothing. Company logo's can be added to any of the items shown in the catalogue with the two main options being embroidered or heat-sealed, depending on the material the logo is being added to.

Most importantly all the garments, sizes and colour options shown in the new catalogue are standard stocked lines ensuring that availability and lead-times won't be an issue.

Commenting on the launch Simon Armer, Head of Marketing for Buck & Hickman said:

'Adding your own company logo to the clothing your employees wear not only projects a smart, professional image for your brand it also helps to reinforce a clear message to your customers of teamwork and pride in the products and services that you provide. What's more, corporate clothing is no longer just the preserve of very big companies with large numbers of employees as modern manufacturing processes mean that now even relatively small companies can take advantage of the benefits that professionally presented corporate clothing can bring'.

Copies of the new catalogue can be obtained from all Buck & Hickman branches and an online version is also available to view on the company's website at www.buckandhickman.com
