BUCK & HICKMAN BACK SUPERBIKE CHAMPIONS

Buck & Hickman has been celebrating with the Jentin Racing BMW team, which the leading supplier has backed since 2008, after it claimed the 'EVO' class title at the 2010 British Superbike Championships in October. Rider Steve Brogan took a win and a second place in the final round at Oulton Park in Cheshire after a thrilling championship decider.

Buck & Hickman has supported the Jentin team for three years and supplies all of the tools required to keep its bikes running at full speed, with this season being the team's most successful to date. Buck & Hickman's 'Tooltastic' branding can be seen emblazoned on the bike and clothing whilst its own brand Roebuck tools feature exclusively in the team workshop.

Simon Armer, Marketing Manager for Buck & Hickman, said: "We'd like to congratulate Jentin Racing BMW on a fantastic first season in the EVO class. British Superbikes really appeal to our customers and we've taken over 200 of them to see various rounds of the 2010 championship. It's great to see our Tooltastic brand on the winning bike and to know that our Roebuck tools are doing their job in the hands of championship winning professionals."
